

Tuxedo Historical Society Presents:
Personal Remembrances of the Wagstaff Family

October 16th from 3:30 - 4:30 p.m. - The Tuxedo Historical Society presents historic tapes of life in Tuxedo Park with the Wagstaff family. JayMihok whose grandfather, Ralph Hellum was the kennelman at the Wagstaff Estate for many years will offer an informal conversation on the images. Historic images of horse races at the race track, swimming at the club, dog shows and other interesting photos. These previously unseen images offer glimpses of living in Tuxedo Park during the 1920s and 1930s.

The presentation will be held at the Tuxedo Historical Society building at 7 Hospital Rd.

Seating is limited so please reserve by email to Tuxedohistory@gmail.com or 845-351-2926. A suggested donation of $10.
